

CACREP

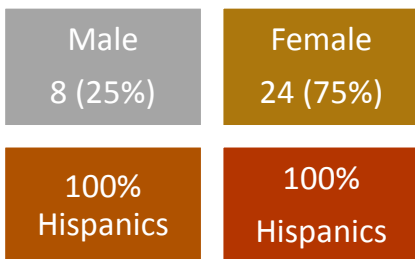

2019 Vital Statistics Survey Summary

University of Puerto Rico is a public institution in the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico. It is located outside of the United States but is a US Territory. The Rehabilitation Counseling Graduate Program is a CACREP accredited program under CORE Standards. The minimum number of credits (semester) hours required in our program for the Rehabilitation Counseling Master's degree is 55. By May 2019, 86 students were enrolled in our program which 18 are male and 68 female. In the past year, 21 students graduated from our program. The completion rate of students from our program is 97%. To the best of our knowledge, the licensure pass rate of students graduating from our program the first time they take the exam is 81%. The job placement rate of graduates from our program is 85%. We just have one Rehabilitation Counseling program accredited under the 2001 standards at the University of Puerto Rico.

Our Master's Student Demographics- May 2019

Master's Students with Disabilities- May 2019

Faculty- 100% Hispanic- May 2019

